The Perfetto RoS 3 Jacket just might be the perfect jacket. One jacket to do it all. Windproof yet highly breathable. Essentially waterproof yet PFAS-free. Lightweight and with significant stretch for a perfect fit. It even looks premium.

The magic comes from Castelli's 15 years of development of the Perfetto (Italian for "perfect") Jacket. The Perfetto RoS 3 represents the biggest jump since the original Gabba, thanks to the exclusive new Polartec® AirCore™ fabric with its PFAS-free semi-air-permeable membrane.

In the search for constant improvement, the RoS 3 is more revolutionary than evolutionary. It's significantly more breathable and water resistant than its predecessor. It also has more stretch than its predecessor, which allows for a close-to-body fit without feeling tight. It provides significan ventilation with zippered chest vents as well as a two-way zipper that you can open from the bottom. It is slightly thinner than its predecessor, for milder rides, but adding insulation layers can take you to very cold conditions.

If your cool-weather riding includes showery days, this is the jacket for you. If you avoid rain, or take a shell for rainy days, take a look at the Perfetto Air Jacket for even more breathability.

THE ULTIMATE WINTER JACKET

The Alpha 150 Jacket is the jacket made so you can ride all winter long. Comfortably.

No excuses.

We set out to make the ultimate winter riding jacket — a singular goal to make the best jacket we could, featuring the best fabrics and innovative construction, and ensuring comfort in the widest range of conditions, including cold and wet.

This jacket is ideal for cold, dry days yet can stand up to everything except all-day driving rain, when you'll probably reach for a rain shell. The fact that it uses recycled yarns and is PFAS-free is a bonus feature of the best winter jacket we've ever made.

The Alpha 150 is the result of 12 years of continual refinement of a concept to keep you warm and dry, both inside and out.

New for 2025, the Alpha 150 Jacket now uses Castelli's exclusive Polartec® AirCore™ fabric for unmatched breathability in a windproof and rainproof fabric. On the inside, Polartec's Alpha insulation provides warmth while enhancing moisture management. The stretchy close-to-body fit means you don't feel like you have a full winter jacket on.

PERHAPS THE PERFECT WARM VEST

Designed to do everything well for riding in cold and sometimes wet conditions.

Part of the technology is coming from the Polartec® AirCore™ fleece-lined 250gr fabric. It's exceptionally warm with a micro grid inside that traps air for insulation along with full wind proofness. It's exceptionally breathable with 0.7cfm air permeability that's unmatched in fabrics providing over 5000mm hydrostatic head rain protection (translation: you stay dry). And it's PFAS-free and made from recycled PET.

The other part of the technology is coming from Castelli's construction, with the two-way stretch helping perfect fit in the riding position, a fleece-lined collar, a YKK Vislon® zipper providing the easiest on-the-fly adjustment and 360° reflective bits for visibility.

This jacket doesn't just have a different aesthetic and fit; it's a totally different construction, meant for the somewhat lower speeds and higher efforts of trail riding. We start with a warm 3D-grid brushed polyester fleece and cover the front and hood with a wind-resistant woven shell. This jacket is good for cold to cool conditions, both on and off the bike.
